

God's Natural Knowledge

- Knowledge of all that is logically necessary
- Knowledge of all logically possible worlds
- Knowledge is made true independent of God's will

God's Middle Knowledge

- Knowledge of contingent truths that would obtain, if a world were created
- Knowledge of all feasible worlds
- These facts are true independent of God's will, but they will only become actualized if God wills them to be

God's Free Knowledge

- These truths are all contingent, and their obtaining is entirely dependent on God's will
- Knowledge of the actual world
